

H. Res. 195

In the House of Representatives, U. S.,

June 15, 1993.

Resolved, That at any time after the adoption of this resolution the Speaker may, pursuant to clause 1(b) of rule XXIII, declare the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for consideration of the bill (H.R. 5) to amend the National Labor Relations Act and the Railway Labor Act to prevent discrimination based on participation in labor disputes. The first reading of the bill shall be dispensed with. General debate shall be confined to the bill and to the amendments made in order by this resolution and shall not exceed two hours, with 60 minutes equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Education and Labor, 30 minutes equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Energy and Commerce, and 30 minutes equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Public Works and Transportation. After general debate the bill shall be considered for amendment under the five-minute rule and shall be considered as read. The amendments recommended by the Committee on Education and Labor now printed in the bill shall be considered as adopted in the House and in the Committee of the Whole. No further amendment shall be in order except those printed in the report of the Committee on Rules accompanying this resolution. Each amendment may be offered only in the order printed, may be offered only by the named proponent or a designee, shall be considered as read, shall be debatable for the time specified in the report equally divided and controlled by the proponent and an opponent, and shall not be subject to amendment. Points of order against the amendment printed in the report to be offered by Representative Ridge of Pennsylvania for failure to comply with clause 7 of rule XVI are waived. At the conclusion of consideration of the bill for amendment the Committee shall rise and report the bill to the House with such amendments as may have been adopted. The previous question shall be considered as ordered on the bill and amendments thereto to final passage without intervening motion except one motion to recommit with or without instructions.

Attest:

Clerk.
